

Select the fields you would like displayed in your query.

Click the Home button to view the fields you have added to the query.

Once fields have been added to a query, you can modify the field headings that are displayed. This will be covered in subsequent job aid.